Washington, DC - Rep. Bruce Braley (D-Waterloo) announced today that staffers from his Waterloo office will hold office hours in several rural communities impacted by the Flood of 2008 and the Memorial Day weekend tornado to help victims of the disasters get back on their feet.

Braley's staff had been holding office hours for several weeks in communities impacted by the tornado; now, in the wake of the devastating floods, hard-hit rural communities are being added to the office hours lineup.

"With the help and support of the community, lowans impacted by the floods and the tornado will rebuild and get back on their feet," Braley said. "I'm sending my staff to hold office hours in the communities impacted by the May 25th tornado and the Flood of 2008 to answer questions about federal disaster aid and to open casework to help victims navigate the FEMA bureaucracy. I want my office to be a resource for people who need help recovering from this disaster."

The schedule of office hours for the next week-starting this Friday, June 20-is below. Braley aides will visit Waverly, New Hartford, Greene, Parkersburg, Clermont, and Hazelton. A schedule for office hours after June 25th in flood-impacted communities will be released when it is finalized.

Braley Staff Office Hours: Friday June 20 - Wednesday June 25

Office hours after 6/25 will be announced when the schedule is finalized.
